

GO-OH SHINTO SHRINE

Introduction

- ▶ Go-oh Shrine is located in Kyoto on the western side of the Imperial Palace.
- ▶ It is dedicated to all things relating to boar. In place of the usual Komainu (mythical lion-like beasts) standing guard outside the shrine, a pair of wild boar have been erected.
- ▶ Wake no Kinomaru (733–799), an adviser to the Heian Period Emperor Kammu (737–806), and the courtier's sister Hiromushi are enshrined at Go-oh.

Ceremony Details

- ▶ Guests: Maximum 24 people
- ▶ [Ceremony fee - 81,000 yen]
- ▶ From 10:00 am till 3:00 pm
You can choose from within the above times.
- ▶ [Unavailable days]
4/4 • 11/1 • 12/28~1/9

A 10 min richshaw ride following the ceremony is included in the package. (only for GO-OH shrine)

Notes

- ▶ The Main Sanctuary will be under repair until the end of November 2017. During this period, ceremonies will be held at 'Kiganden', the shrine's second sanctuary.
- ▶ Japanese ceremonies only.