Heihachi Jaya (山ばな平八茶屋)

Heihachi Jaya, which was established in 1576, is located along the Takano River overlooking Mt. Hiei to the East. In its Japanese garden you can enjoy cherry blossoms in spring and the colorful leaves of maple trees in autumn. At the entrance of the Heihachi Jaya Inn stands the 400-year-old Kigyumon Gate, which was transferred here from a Zen Buddhist temple. The waitresses, dressed in the traditional style of days gone by, welcome you at the gate.
