

KYOTO MARUYAMA PARK SAAMI

Kyoto Maruyama Park Saami (左阿彌)

Saami was established in 1849 and built on the high grounds of Maruyama Park by the nephew of Oda Nobunaga as an elegant place to spend his twilight years. The more than 3300 square meter facilities include a main building, annex and tea house, all bringing to life the scenery of the past. The cherry blossoms in springtime and flaming crimson leaves of autumn make this a wonderful place to enjoy a special meal amid the beauty of nature. With a total of 20 large and small dining rooms and a party space accommodating up to 90 people, it is perfect for wedding receptions and other social occasions.
